PINNACLE AWARDS

There are #influencers, then there are those who are legitimately influential and 450 of the latter gathered for the 2018/19 Pinnacle Awards Dinner at The Westin Hotel. Business, public service and not-for-profit industry leaders including Federal Finance Minister Mathias Cormann and wife Hayley, Premier Mark McGowan, businesswoman and philanthropist Elizabeth Perron and Perth Airport chairman Nev Power were hosted by Australian Institute of Management WA's chief executive Gary Martin for the event. Top honours went to former Water Corporation chief Sue Murphy and Mineral Resources boss Chris Ellison.
